

Restaurants in Station Square

You can walk to the restaurants listed below from the Sheraton Station Square Hotel

Whether you're in town for business or pleasure, Station Square is the place to dine and play. With over 20 restaurants and eateries, you're bound to find a great spot to suit your tastes.

Bar Louie

This hip neighborhood restaurant and bar specializes in oversized sandwiches and artfully created jumbo martinis, but also offers an extensive selection of appetizers, pastas, and entrees, plus a wide assortment of interesting beers, microbrews, and wines by the glass or bottle. Warm surroundings with an urban feel includes nightlife photography and signature hand-laid tile artwork.

<http://www.barlouieamerica.com/>

Buca di Beppo

An authentic Italian restaurant offering flavorful Italian dining: Dine with family and friends while enjoying the Italian traditions of food, friendship and hospitality. In the spirit of the Italian culture, dishes are served family style and are meant to be shared. Groups small and large can come together to pass platters of mouth-watering cuisine around the table for all to enjoy.

<http://www.bucadibepo.com/>

Buckhead Saloon

Not just a nightclub, but an All-American dining experience for lunch and dinner. With wings, pizzas, salads, sandwiches, and party deals, Buckhead Saloon is perfect for a great dining experience. Featuring two full bars, Buckhead is known for its nightlife, but also hosts great private and semi-private parties. Catering is offered for groups from 20 to 600, and can be hosted on or off-site.

<http://www.buckheadpittsburgh.com/>

Cool Beans

A cool alternative to coffee franchises. Stop by the Freight House near the Food Court to see what they are all about.

DiSanto Pizza

Stop by the Crossing Court Food Court for a quick slice at Disanto Pizza. You'll find a new expanded menu that offere pasta, hoagies and much more.

Gandy Dancer Saloon

Attached to the Grand Concourse is its more casual sister restaurant, The Gandy Dancer Saloon features a rustic atmosphere with wood plank floors and small secluded booths, a long oak bar and another horse-shoe raw bar & pasta station, both with tall bar stools. The Gandy offers patrons a more casual list of foods including fresh fish, pastas, sandwiches and chowders. Entertainment is featured seven nights a week.

<http://www.muer.com/gandy-dancer/index.asp>

Grand Concourse

This fine seafood emporium, a Chuck Muer restaurant, is set in the Edwardian splendor of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad terminal built in 1901. Opened to the public in April of 1978, the Grand Concourse is part of Pittsburgh History and Landmark's Station Square restoration. The decor of the Grand Concourse combines brass, marble, mahogany and a breathtaking stained glass cathedral ceiling.

<http://www.muer.com/grand-concourse/index.asp>

Hard Rock Cafe

What started as an American diner in the heart of London has blossomed into a way of life. Hard Rock isn't just a name; it's a culture that aims to "Love all. Serve all." Hard Rock came jammin' into Pittsburgh in the summer of 2002 with an industrial ceiling and exposed-brick stage with indoor seating for 200, seasonal outdoor patio, and a 80 seat private indoor patio room overlooking the dancing fountain.

<http://www.hardrock.com/>

Houlihan's

Eclectic menu classic burgers and wings with innovative selections like tuna wontons and shrooms. Whether a steak, burger, enchiladas, BBQ Salmon salad, or appetizers at the bar - everything on the menu is made the hard way - from scratch. In the bar enjoy handcrafted cocktails from classic to trendy.

www.houlihans.com

Joe's Crab Shack

Joe knows seafood. Step inside Joe's Crab Shack and you will feel as if you are in a Gulf Coast fishing camp. It's so much fun, we sometimes forget to talk about the great food! The Joe's experience is just so cool and comfortable. It's loved by adults and kids alike. Boogie over to the patio so you can chill out and pound some crabs. Or if you'd rather stay inside, kick-back and enjoy a relaxed meal. It's casual seafood at its best!

<http://www.joescrabshack.com/>

Kiku Japanese Restaurant

This relaxing atmosphere, with dim lights and Japanese music, transforms your Station Square experience to a peaceful East Asian dining affair. Kiku preserves the style of a Japanese tea room, with paper windows and lanterns in the Edo tradition.

Along with sushi and sashimi, you can try entrees such as white fish tsutsumiyaki and veal maki.

kikupittsburgh.net

The Melting Pot

Discover all the ingredients to a perfect evening, including a relaxed atmosphere, private tables, attentive service, fine wines and fabulous four-course fondue dinners. Guests enjoy a choice of four flavorful fondue cooking styles and a variety of unique entrees combined with special dipping sauces. The menu also includes creamy cheese fondues, fresh salads, fine wines and mouthwatering chocolate fondue desserts.

<http://www.meltingpot.com/>

Sesame Inn

This fine Chinese dining experience offers a sit-down restaurant and lounge, along with carry-out and free delivery. Open for lunch and dinner, Sesame Inn also offers available private party rooms. Bringing traditional Chinese dishes to Station Square with over 40 selections to choose from, Sesame Inn offers a variety from General Tso's to Ginger Chicken, and Triple Delight to Seafood Supreme.

<http://www.sesameinn.net/>

Steel City Slammers

Head to Steel City Slammers for American food serving up breakfast, lunch, and dinner, along with quick serve ice cream! Located in Bessemer Court by Starbucks Coffee.

Steelhouse Sports, Saloon & Eatery

Pittsburgh's best sports bar is located in the East Warehouse at Station Square. Steelhouse is the perfect destination for great food, billiards, games and a large selection of draft beers. Plus, you'll find multiple big screen high definition televisions to catch your favorite sporting events, whether it's College, NFL, NHL or MLB.

<http://www.steelhousepittsburgh.com/>

Subway

Internationally recognized in 86 different countries across the globe, Subway has grown to become a household name. Turkey Breast, Italian B.M.T., Tuna and the Subway Club are some of the brand's most popular sandwiches. Toasted favorites include Meatball Marinara, the Chicken & Bacon Ranch, and Subway Melt subs.

<http://www.subway.com/>

Trackside

Welcome to a delicious new dining experience from the creators of Pittsburgh Rare. Trackside takes the place of Pittsburgh Rare in the Sheraton Station Square lobby, featuring small plates in a warm, inviting atmosphere for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Introduce your taste buds to Trackside and present a copy of this page to receive 20% off your check. Discount applies to food portion of lunch or dinner check only. Valid for up to four diners. Offer expires March 31, 2012.

Texas de Brazil

Carving a new experience in dining, Texas de Brazil is the premiere Brazilian steakhouse in Pittsburgh! At Texas de Brazil, you can choose from an endless selection of choice, seasoned and flame-grilled cuts of beef, lamb, pork, chicken and sausage---all served tableside by a parade of roaming carvers. Enjoy the bountiful buffet of more than 50 items in the salad area and exquisite desserts, signature cocktails or rare wines from our award-winning lists for a dining experience unlike anything else.